

Renren Announces the Appointment of Chief Business Officer of Trucker Path Inc.

June 5, 2018 10:00 AM EDT

BEIJING, June 5, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Renren Inc. (NYSE: RENN) ("Renren"), which operates a social networking service (SNS) business, used auto business and SaaS business, today announced the appointment of Chris Oliver as the chief business officer of Trucker Path Inc. Renren acquired 100% of Trucker Path, a provider of a social platform for the trucking industry in the United States, in December 2017.

"We are delighted to have Chris Oliver join our management team at Renren," said Joseph Chen, Renren's chairman and chief executive officer. "Mr. Oliver possesses a wealth of leadership and management experience. We believe that he will be able to make significant strategic contributions to Trucker Path's development. To achieve our goals, we'll need to continue attracting global talent."

Just before joining Renren, Mr. Oliver was the principal consultant for Strategistix, LLC a firm providing strategic planning and marketing consulting services to several transportation technology providers. Prior to his consulting business, Mr. Oliver led growth and innovation for PrePass and was Chief Marketing Officer for Zonar Systems, both of which experienced hyper-growth under his leadership. In addition to PrePass and Zonar, Mr. Oliver has also held executive positions with Xerox, Affiliated Computer Services and Lockheed Martin. Mr. Oliver earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration in Marketing, International Management & Finance from the University of Toledo.
