Second Quarter 2017 Results

Total net revenues for the second quarter of 2017 were US$22.3 million, representing a 55.4% increase from the corresponding period in 2016.

Advertising and IVAS net revenues were US$12.7 million, representing a 67.9% increase from the corresponding period of 2016. Advertising revenues were US$0.1 million for the second quarter of 2017. IVAS revenues were US$12.6 million, representing an 86.7% increase from the corresponding period in 2016. The increase was mainly due to the revenue from our Renren mobile live streaming service. Monthly unique log-in users of the Renren SNS platform decreased from approximately 35 million in June 2016 to approximately 34 million in June 2017. Login users' monthly average time spent increased 23.9% year-over-year.

Financing income was US$8.6 million for the second quarter of 2017, compared to US$6.8 million in the corresponding period of 2016. The increase was in line with the increase of financing receivable from US$207.2 million as of June 30, 2016 to US$238.6 million as of June 30, 2017.

Used car sales revenue of US$1.0 million was generated through one of our subsidiaries conducting a used car trading business, which is a new business that we initiated in the second quarter of 2017.

Cost of revenues was US$17.4 million, a 32.5% increase from the corresponding period of 2016.

Operating expenses were US$20.4 million, a 1.7% increase from the corresponding period of 2016.

Selling and marketing expenses were US$6.0 million, a 15.2% increase from the corresponding period of 2016. The increase was primarily due to an increase in advertising and promotion expenses.

Research and development expenses were US$4.6 million, compared to US$4.6 million in the corresponding period in 2016.

General and administrative expenses were US$9.8 million, a 4.4% decrease from the corresponding period in 2016.

Share-based compensation expenses, which were all included in operating expenses, were US$5.2 million, compared to US$5.5 million in the corresponding period in 2016.

Operating loss was US$15.5 million, compared to an operating loss of US$18.8 million in the corresponding period in 2016.

Non-operating loss was US$62.8 million, compared to a loss of US$28.3 million in the corresponding period in 2016. Non-operating loss for the second quarter of 2017 was mainly due to a US$61.0 million impairment on long-term investments.

Earnings in equity method investments were US$61.7 million, compared to earnings of US$1.4 million in the corresponding period in 2016. Earnings in equity method investment for the second quarter of 2017 mainly included a US$58.3 million gain on disposal of certain shares of Social Finance Inc.

Net loss attributable to the Company was US$17.2 million, compared to a net loss of US$46.1 million in the corresponding period in 2016.

Adjusted net loss (non-GAAP) was US$12.0 million, compared to an adjusted net loss of US$40.6 million in the corresponding period in 2016. Adjusted net loss is defined as loss excluding share-based compensation expenses and amortization of intangible assets.

Business Outlook

The Company expects to generate revenues in an amount ranging from US$60 million to US$65 million in the third quarter of 2017, representing a 235.5% to 263.4% year-over-year increase. The increase is expected to be primarily due to revenue from used car sales through one of our subsidiaries that is now conducting a used car trading business. This forecast reflects Renren's current and preliminary view, which is subject to change.

Updates on Proposed Transactions

As described in the Company's most recent annual report on Form 20-F, filed on May 15, 2017, the Company is continuing to pursue its plan to dispose of a newly formed subsidiary (the "Subsidiary") that would hold its advertising agency business and most of its investments in minority stakes in its investee companies. The plan is intended primarily to address the risk that the Company could be deemed to be an investment company as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

When the plan was initially announced last year, the Company expected to dispose of the Subsidiary by means of a distribution of rights by the Company to all of its shareholders on a pro rata basis in proportion to their shareholding in the Company. These rights would have allowed shareholders that were both (i) "qualified purchasers" under the Investment Company Act and (ii) "accredited investors" under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to elect to receive either shares of the newly formed Subsidiary ("Subsidiary Shares") or a cash dividend based on the value of the Subsidiary Shares. Non-qualified shareholders or qualified shareholders not electing to receive Subsidiary Shares would receive the cash dividend. To help fund payment of the cash dividend, the Company's board of directors considered a preliminary non-binding proposal from Mr. Joseph Chen, Mr. James Jian Liu and SoftBank Group Capital Limited, each a Company affiliate, to purchase for cash those Subsidiary Shares that would not be distributed to shareholders. To consider the plan and the related offer from the affiliates, the Company's board of directors formed a special committee which, in turn, retained its own financial advisor and counsel to advise it.

In its most recent Form 20-F, the Company announced that the special committee was considering a revised plan. Since then, although many of the previous elements remain unchanged, the Company has further revised the plan. Subject to potential change and refinement, this further revised plan (the "Plan") includes the following elements:

- The transfer of most of the Company's investments in minority stakes in its investee companies, including all of its shares of Social Finance Inc., to the Subsidiary;
 - The transfer of the Company's advertising agency business (conducted by Beijing Zhenzhong Interactive Information Technology Co., Ltd.) to the Subsidiary;
 - The declaration of a special cash dividend to all Company shareholders (the "Dividend"), with the amount to be determined as described below;
 - An offer of Subsidiary Shares in a private placement to qualified Company shareholders (i.e., those Company shareholders that are both (i) "qualified purchasers" under the Investment Company Act and (ii) "accredited investors" under the Securities Exchange Act) on a pro rata basis in proportion to their shareholding in the Company, in exchange for a waiver by those shareholders of their pro rata share of the Dividend as payment for the Subsidiary Shares (the "Private Placement");
 - At the closing of the Private Placement, the transfer of 100% of the Subsidiary Shares to those qualified Company shareholders opting to acquire Subsidiary Shares in exchange for waiving their pro rata right to the Dividend; and
 - At the earliest practicable time after the closing of the Private Placement, the payment of the Dividend to those shareholders of the Company that have not waived it.

The amount of the Dividend will be based on or influenced by, among other things, the Subsidiary's valuation at the time of the Private Placement, the percentage of Company shareholders opting to waive their share of the Dividend in exchange for Subsidiary Shares, and the cash available to the Company to fund the Dividend. At this time, based on the holdings of its largest affiliated shareholders, the Company expects shareholders holding at least 75% of its outstanding shares will elect to purchase Subsidiary Shares in the Private Placement.

Although the Company plans to carry out the Plan as soon as practicable, timing depends on a number of factors, many of which are at least partially outside of the Company's control.

The Company must secure adequate financing to carry out the Plan. Since the filing of the Company's most recent Form 20-F, the principle change to the Plan relates to the manner of funding the Dividend and the working capital needs of the Subsidiary. The Company has been negotiating with SoftBank Group Corp., the parent company of SB Pan Pacific Corporation, one of the Company's largest shareholders, for a loan to the Subsidiary. It is anticipated that the Subsidiary will transfer an agreed amount of cash to the Company in connection with the transfer of assets to the Subsidiary. This cash, together with cash that the Company has on hand (including proceeds from the previously announced sale of shares of Social Finance Inc. in April 2017), will help finance payment of the Dividend. The key commercial terms for this loan have been substantially agreed between the parties, subject to the approval of the special committee.

The Company must properly transfer its advertising agency business and most of its investments in minority stakes in its investee companies to the Subsidiary as part of the Plan. In 2015, the Company received a loan from a financial institution to finance its purchase of additional shares of Social Finance Inc., which shares were and still are pledged as collateral to the lender. The pledged shares, together with the corresponding loan obligations, are intended to transfer to the Subsidiary as part of the Plan. The Company has been negotiating an agreement with the lender to permit this share transfer and debt assumption. The key commercial terms for this agreement also have been substantially agreed between the parties, subject to the approval of the special committee.

In addition, the Plan remains subject to the approval of the special committee of the Company's board of directors, which will make the final determination as to whether the Company will carry out the Plan in the proposed form or in any other form, or carry out a different transaction or no transaction at all. The special committee, with the assistance of its financial advisor, will assess the fairness of the Dividend to be paid to shareholders of the Company who are not acquiring Subsidiary Shares in the Private Placement. The terms of the Plan also remain subject to the approval of SoftBank Group Corp. in accordance with the Company's articles of association.

If the valuation of the assets for purposes of the transaction is lower than the book value at closing, then the Company will have a loss on disposal of those assets. However, the existence or amount of any such loss can not be determined until the special committee concludes the valuation of those assets with the assistance of its financial advisor. The Company will provide further guidance on any such loss at a later date.
