PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Renren Inc. (the "Company") was unable to file its Annual Report on Form 20-F for the period ended December 31, 2020 on a timely basis because the Company was unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to complete its financial data within the prescribed period. The Company anticipates that it will file the Form 20-F no later than the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed filing date.

SEC 1344 (06-19) Persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB control number.

(Telephone Number)

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company anticipates a significant decrease in its revenues of around 85% from the year ended December 31, 2019 to the year ended December 31, 2020. The decrease in anticipated revenues was primarily due to Kaixin Auto Holdings (“Kaixin”), the entity which operates the Company’s used automobile sales business and generates a significant majority of the Company’s revenues, having decided to put a halt to its used-car dealership business operations while reexamining its business model.

In addition, Kaixin has entered into a share purchase agreement with the shareholders of Haitaoche Limited, a China-based online retail platform for imported automobiles. Pursuant to this agreement, Kaixin will acquire 100% of the share capital of Haitaoche Limited from its shareholders in consideration of newly issued ordinary shares of Kaixin. Upon closing of the transaction, Haitaoche Limited’s shareholders will obtain control of Kaixin. Accordingly, the Company expects to treat Kaixin and the used automobile business as discontinued operations in the Form 20-F.

Based on currently available information, the Company expects to report material weaknesses in the Company’s internal control over financial reporting relating to (1) inadequate controls designed over the accounting of significant and complex transactions to ensure that those transactions are properly accounted for in accordance with U.S. GAAP, (2) lack of an effective continuous risk assessment process to identify and assess the financial reporting risks, and (3) lack of evaluations to ascertain whether the components of internal control are present and functioning.

Forward-Looking Statements

This notification includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The word “expects,” “anticipates” and similar terms and phrases are used in this notification to identify forward-looking statements. Risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could affect the Company’s forward-looking statements include, among other things, any changes to our anticipated financial results as a result of our ability to confirm information or data identified in the review, our ability to complete and file future periodic filings with the SEC on a timely basis and other risks and uncertainties discussed more fully in the Company’s filings with the SEC. Unless required by law, the Company expressly disclaims any obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
